

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT OF FLORIDA
TAMPA DIVISION

In re:

Case No.: 8:11-bk-22258-MGW

Chapter 7

Fundamental Long Term
Care, Inc.

Debtor.

MOTION FOR ORDER AUTHORIZING EXAMINATION PURSUANT TO RULE 2004
OF THE FEDERAL RULES OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE
(MATTHEW BOX)

Beth Ann Scharrer, ("Trustee") by and through her undersigned counsel, files this Motion for the Entry of an Order Pursuant to Rule 2004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure Authoring the Examination of certain individuals that are or may be related to Fundamental Long Term Care, Inc. ("Debtor") and it's wholly owned subsidiary, Trans Health Management, Inc. ("TMHI") and persons that may be in possession of records and/or information related to the assets, liabilities and business of the Debtor, and, in connections with said examination, requiring the production of relevant documents and records. In support of this Motion, the Trustee submits as follows:

1. This Motion is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157, and this Court has jurisdiction to hear this Motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334. Venue is proper in this District.

2. On December 8, 2011 ("Petition Date"), an Involuntary Petition under Chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code was filed against Fundamental Long Term Care, Inc., Debtor. On January 12, 2012, after no response from Debtor, the Court entered an Order for Relief (Doc. No. 6).

3. Beth Ann Scharrer, Trustee, is duly qualified and acting Trustee.

4. No response was initially made by or on behalf of the Debtor, and no Schedules or Statement of Financial Affairs have been filed. On April 2, 2012, Debtor's Motion for Entry of an Order Converting Debtor's Bankruptcy to a Case Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code was filed on behalf of the debtor. As such, there is little information on the record upon which the Trustee can rely to determine the assets and liabilities of the Debtor.

5. Rule 2004 provides, in pertinent part, that upon the motion of any party in interest, "...the court may order the examination of any entity." The permitted scope of the examination is far reaching. Pursuant to Rule 2004(b), the examination "may relate...to the acts, conduct or property or to the liabilities or financial condition or the Debtor," or to any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate...and to any other matter relevant to the case...". The purpose of a Rule 2004 Examination is to assist a party in interest in determining the nature and extent of the bankruptcy estate, revealing assets, examine transactions and assessing whether wrongdoing has occurred. Cameron v. United States, 231 U.S. 710, 717 (1914).

6. "Rule 2004 permits the broadest kind of deposition." In re Stewart, No. 5:95-CV-235-4, 1995 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 22333, at *4 (Banr. M.D. Ga. June 7, 1995.) (internal cites omitted). The purpose of a Rule 2004 Examination is to "show the condition of the estate and to enable the Court to discover its extent and whereabouts, and to come into possession of it, that the rights of the creditors may be preserved." In re Coffee Cupboard, Inc., 128B.R. 509, 514 (Banr. E.D.N.Y. 1991) (quoting Cameron v. United States, 231 U.S. 710, 717, (1914)). The scope of an inquiry permitted under Rule 2004 is broad in order to reveal "the nature and extent of the estate; [ascertain] assets; and [discover] whether any wrongdoing has occurred." In re Corso, 328 B.R., 375, 383 (E.D.N.Y. 2005); see also In re Pan Am. Hospital Corp., Nos. 04-

11819-BKC-AJC, 04-11820-BKC-ALC, 2005 WL 2245907, at *2(Bankr. S.D. Fla. Feb. 25, 2005) (“courts have acknowledged the rule’s broad scope”); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Group, Inc., 123 B.R. 702, 708 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1991) (“Starting with the 1978 Code there has been an expansive reading of the rule....It can be legitimately compared to a fishing expedition.”) (citing In re Vantage Petroleum Corp., 34 B.R. 650, 651 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1983)).

7. As more specifically identified below, the Trustee’s examination of the Debtor officers, directors and shareholders and related parties will explore, among other things, issues related to the assets and liabilities of the Debtor, including but not limited to: the history of the Debtor, either in connection with its formation and organization; assets transferred to and from the Debtor, either in connection with its formation or outside the course of business; liabilities accepted by the Debtor in connection with any such transactions; the disposition of any assets of the Debtor’s predecessors in connection with such transactions.

8. This Court has authority to grant relief requested under Rule 2004 on an ex parte basis. See Advisory Committee note to Bankruptcy Rule 2004 (“The motion may be heard ex parte or it may be on notice”).

9. Applying the foregoing principles, the Trustee is entitled to Rule 2004 examination of the Debtor and Related Entities and individuals who may have information concerning the assets, liabilities, books and records of the Debtor.

10. The Trustee respectfully requests the Court enter an order pursuant to Rule 2004 of the Bankruptcy Rules authorizing the Trustee to conduct oral examination of Matthew Box not later than May 10, 2012 at Capital Reporting, 111 South Calvert Street Suite 270, Baltimore MD, or at a mutually agreed upon location and time and to require him to bring the documents set forth on Exhibit A attached hereto.

11. The Trustee additionally requests the Court enter an order pursuant to Rule 2004 to permit interested creditors to attend the Rule 2004 examinations and make inquiry.

WHEREFORE, Beth Ann Scharrer, Trustee, respectfully requests that the Court enter an Order Authorizing the Rule 2004 Examination of Matthew Box and require that he produce documents in his possession or control listed on Exhibit "A" attached hereto. Further order that the Rule 2004 examination for Matthew Box take place on May 10, 2012 at Capital Reporting, 111 South Calvert Street, Suite 270, Baltimore MD at 9:30 am unless the parties can mutually agree to a time and location prior to that date.

Respectfully submitted,
